

Ugly Sweater Dances lead to a lovely night in Reading

Saturday December 19, 2015 12:01 AM

Reading Eagle

READING, PA

The Reading Recreation Commission held an "Ugly Sweater Dance" on Friday evening at both of its recreation centers, at Third and Spruce and at 11th and Pike streets.

Besides the dancing to music played by a disc jockey, prizes were awarded to the winners of the Ugliest Sweater Contest.

Santa and Mrs. Claus also stopped in at 11th and Pike at 6 p.m., to see who was naughty and nice and to distribute gifts to children.

The polar couple will make another stop at the Third and Spruce center at 6 p.m. Tuesday to hand out gifts to the children there. That event will follow the Recreation Center Christmas dinner for its staff and youth members

Reading Eagle: Ben Hasty | Santa takes to the dance floor during the Ugly Sweater Dance at the 11th and Pike Recreation Center in Reading Friday night. To the right of Santa is Niyah Morales, 6.